CAMOGIE CELEBRATING 110 YEARS

ÁTH CLIATH

Fáilte ón gCathaoirleach

Fearaim fíor-chaoin fáilte roimh gach éinne go gdtí Páirc Uí Thuathail go mór mór muintir Corcaí agus Ciarraí.

Another championship season is upon us with all teams expectant and hopeful that this might be their year. Last year's wonderful senior win by Galway was memorable for many things most especially the lesson that one should never give up no matter how many disappointing days one has.

This year marks the 110th Anniversary of the Camogie Association - one that has already created a few landmarks with the first billboard advertisement featuring a camogie player. Few in Dublin can have missed the massive signs created as part of the AIG sponsorship with senior player Ali Twomey joining hurling, football and ladies football stars. Secondly this is the first year in our history that Dublin will field three adult teams in the championship. A sign of improving times.

We welcome our visitors today - Cork last year's semi finalists and a team that has been knocking on the door of All-Ireland success in recent times. We extend a warm welcome and wish captain Anna Geary every success in the Rose of Tralee final!

The Junior A clash on Sunday marks the first championship meeting of Dublin and Kerry. The Kingdom and Dublin have been legendary football rivals. We look forward to the start of a new saga that will add to that story.

The Camogie Association has introduced a very attractive ticket package for this year's All-Ireland series covering senior, intermediate and junior championships. I urge as many of our supporters as possible to get behind the initiative - for every €1 spent - 20c stays with each county board.

My thanks to all who have helped in any way with today's and tomorrow's games especially the mini teams, the Dublin GAA county Board and Luke Lawlor, Noel Brady and their team at O'Toole Park. We look forward to a great season.

Le meas

Go raibh míle maith agaibh
